Order History 🔑

Origin 🔑

The founding of the order dates back to the great wars of humanity against the Elder Races, especially with the elves.

Some of the nobles during that time came together to create semi-religious groups aimed at fighting against the enemies of mankind (at least the thinking ones, not so much monsters).

It was Hugues de Napeys of Temeria, a priest of Kreve, who took it upon himself to bring some of these groups together into a proper knight order. He became the first Grandmaster and formed the ideas of the absorbed groups into a clear and comprehensible structure.

Initiation

All members must swear oaths upon their joining. These oaths contain "The Vow of Victory", "The Vow of Absolute Obedience", "The Vow of Charity" and "The Vow of Chastity".

- The Vow of Victory: A knight of the White Rose never surrenders, never retreats. A knight must not ever be captured. To strike down an unarmed, unprepared, or fleeing foe is dishonorable.
- The Vow of Absolute Obedience: A knight of the White Rose obeys any order given by a superior.
- The Vow of Charity: A knight of the White Rose gives up any and all personal wealth, for all their needs will be nourished by the order.
- The Vow of Chastity: A knight of the White Rose must give up any and all romantic and physical pursuits, for attachments are a weakness to be exploited by the enemies of mankind.

Breaking any of these vows is punished by death.
